Release

Dadlin' Mums —

It was grand to hear your voice —
Hope you did sleep well — I did, I know.
But it's funny about the broadcast, because people with short wave sets here in Wellesley couldn't get it either — another station too close Cleveland, I think. For all we know, it wasn't hooked up or something. We'll have to wait until someone sends word they did hear it before we know.
It was fun doing it though — how I think I'd like radio work! I'll probably end up peddling papers on the street corner — you meet such nice people! And the human nature that one sees! My dear!! oh oh — Lunch time — see you dinner over — how-de-do? Later

The photos inclosed are for your approval or disapproval.
To mark the least worst — & the one you consider does not disgrace our fair name too much, & return at your very earliest convenience — because I want them by May 17 if Ted comes, & it takes quite a while.

Davenport speech finals at this P.M.
Pray that it doesn't go too badly. There are 10 of us contestants — Probably Lorish will get it. 2 minutes spontaneous speech — 4 minutes extract fr play — & 2 minutes lyric. What ho, Mabel!!

Bye now — & love

Ginger
